GENERAL STATEMENT

History.—In response to a general demand from the public and to meet the wishes of His Grace, Archbishop Blenk, the Jesuit Fathers opened a Catholic university in New Orleans in the Fall of 1911. This University is a part of the great Jesuit University System, which numbers an actual attendance of over fifty thousand students. Its aim is to put a heart and a conscience into secular instruction, and to vitalize knowledge by the influence of fundamental religious principles.

System of Education.—The Jesuit system of education aims at developing, side by side, the moral and intellectual faculties of the student, and sending forth to the world men of sound judgment, of acute and rounded intellect, of upright and manly conscience. The whole man, mind, will and body must be developed.

The various courses offered by the University are open to students irrespective of creed, and the religious tenets of all are studiously respected. Nevertheless, the course of instruction in all branches supposes the existence of God, and man's entire dependence upon the Supreme Being. The pernicious effects of materialism, skepticism, rationalism, etc., will not be permitted to exercise influence in any course, professional or non-professional, nor will any statement or theory conflicting with Divine revelation be countenanced. Moreover, God's holy commandments will be esteemed and revered, and our young men will be taught a code of ethics which will acknowledge God's rights and supreme dominion over man.

The Need of a College Education.—Loyola University holds as a cardinal principle of sound education (and the common opinion of most educators on this point is being confirmed by the general demand of professional schools and even commercial organizations) that a college course following the completion of the regular high school, is the only adequate foundation for a successful career, whether in business or in a profession.

The graduate of the best standard high school is not fully trained; he cannot be fully equipped for life. His work has been introductory; he has merely laid a foundation for real study and the serious pursuit of knowledge.

The college curriculum begins to build on this foundation. The problem is not one merely of books and subjects; it is pre-eminently one of training the young man to use his own mind and senses scientifically and thoroughly. With the purpose of his life's pursuit in constant view, such subjects are selected as will make him master of the great tools of education with which he must always work.

Knowledge of Languages.—One of the first requisites of a cultured man is the power of self-expression through the medium of language. A mastery of English in all its forms is essential, while the habit of reading and research through the volumes that crystallize the master thoughts of the world's greatest thinkers is a most potent factor in a man's future success. In this reading age, a man must be a trained reader and familiar with the best literature in his chosen field.

Importance of the Classics.—The classical languages are again coming into their own. The helpfulness of Latin and Greek in understanding scientific nomenclature; the necessity of some knowledge of the languages from which our own English was derived, as a means to understand our literature or to use our mother tongue with precision and force; the influence of the classic models of art and style in shaping our present day forms of culture and expression, and the inspiration and ideals that owe their life to the wisdom of the past golden ages of literature; these, and many other considerations are bringing thinking students back to the earnest pursuit of the treasures bequeathed to us by Greece and Rome.

Scientific Attitude of Today.—So rapidly has science forced itself upon the minds of the present generation that no student is qualified to hold his own in the world who does not equip himself with the fundamental methods and the general facts of the sciences of Biology, Physics and Chemistry.

Aware of this urgent need, Loyola University has just opened its new Science Building which is equipped to meet the exacting demands of modern progress.

Every opportunity is given to the student to gain a general knowledge of the sciences, or to specialize in that particular science which he may deem most useful in his later life.

The College of Arts and Sciences has added to its curriculum a highly specialized course in Chemistry, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry. The purpose is to give fundamental and technical instruction not alone in Chemistry but also in other subjects naturally germane and pertinent to the theory and working knowledge of modern chemical engineering.

Therefore, a set of studies has been mapped out in complete accord with approved practice of the best chemical schools. Yet there is included the essentials of a liberal education—and above all, the study of philosophy, mother of sciences and main-spring of all learning.

The chemical industry is growing fast in Louisiana. Sugar factories, petroleum refineries, alcohol distilleries, paper mills—these are a few of our plants that need men technically trained for chemical control. And it is believed that the future holds many more opportunities along these lines. The proximity of the tropics, with their constant need of sugar chemists, is additional encouragement to those ambitious to succeed in this field.

This course should make a deep appeal to those who want an immediately visible technical training along with the general, liberal and broadening education of the Jesuit system.

Business Training.—The College of Arts and Sciences has also added to its curriculum a specialized course in Commerce and Finance, leading to the degree of Bachelor of Science in Economics. It does this in answer to the demand of business men for specially trained executives in the different branches of business.

The course mapped out for this degree will give to the student a broad view of the field of business and, at the same time, equip him for the various executive posts of modern day business. In addition to a thorough course in economics, business administration and the other important branches of business, it affords the student a thorough training in mental philosophy and Christian ethics.

At the completion of this course, in addition to obtaining the degree, the student will also be prepared to take the State Certified Public Accountant's examination.

Philosophy, the Key of Knowledge.—It has been demonstrated that the gathering of mere information or the storing of scattered facts of science, history and literature, does not make the educated and cultured man. The mind's innate thirst for all truth and the foundation of truth, forces it to pursue its inquiry into the near and remote causes of this wonderful universe. To link together the findings of science, to solve the riddle of created things and to understand the purpose and destiny of life, this is the truth which the mind seeks. Through a sound course of philosophy one learns to use his intellectual powers in discussing the vital questions of the day and comes to have a broad and deep outlook upon life and reverence for the great principles by which life grows to its perfect goal.

Character-Building and Moral Training.—Wonderful as is the function of developing the human mind, more tremendously vital is the essential duty of education to form the character and ideals that will be reflected in a truly moral and ethical life. The University is particularly attentive to the influences and environments which so strongly influence the moral habits being formed at this time, and every effort is made to imbue the mind with correct principles, motives and ideals of right conduct.

The University is convinced that without religion there can be no solid foundation for ethical character or moral conduct. It strives to cultivate a right conscience in its students towards the discharge of their civil, social and religious duties. The cultivation of the Christian virtues and the fulfillment of each one's religious obligations, are insisted upon.

The Catholic students are required to attend the classes in Religion, to be present at the chapel exercises, to make an annual retreat, and to approach the Sacraments at least once a month.

BUILDINGS

Location.—Loyola University is admirably situated in the the garden district of the City of New Orleans, on St. Charles Avenue, opposite Audubon Park. Many street car lines pass close to the University, making it easy of access from all parts of the city.

The whole neighborhood about the University is the choicest residence portion of the city. Students may easily obtain room and board with private families within a few blocks of the campus. Many families make a special effort to cater to the University students. The rates are reasonable, while many of the charms of home life with its protection and stimulus to study and gentlemanly behavior, are thus afforded by responsible people who feel a personal interest in the students' health, study, and pleasure.

Architecture.—The buildings of the University group are of the Tudor-Gothic style of architecture, and by their graceful, open outlines and their majestic expanse form one of the most striking pictures of architectural splendor to be seen in the Southland. The buildings are of oriental brick of blended colors, trimmed in grey sandstone or terra-cotta. All of the group buildings are new and strictly fireproof.

Louise C. Thomas Hall.—This building is devoted to the Faculty, and to such associations as work for the growth, development, and wider influence of the whole University. It is the gift of Mrs. Louise C. Thomas, whose generous benefactions have been a stimulus to religious and educational development in New Orleans.

Marquette Hall.—This magnificent structure of four floors, 200x65 feet, is the main building of the University. It is the home of the College of Arts and Sciences, and serves temporarily for the Law School.

The McDermott Memorial Church.—This is perhaps the most impressive piece of architecture in the city. It stands in its grandeur and solemnity at a most commanding point on the Boulevard, and its massive tower forms the background of the most artistic views to be had from any point in Audubon Park.

The church is the gift of Miss Kate McDermott in memory of her brother, Thomas McDermott. The interior furnishings and decorations are the gifts of special donors.

The wonderful Calvary scene which forms the altar, hewn from the purest Carrara marble by Italian artists, is the gift of Mr. Lawrence Fabacher, K. of St. G. The other marble altars are gifts of Mrs. E. J. Bobet, Mrs. Wm. P. Burke, Mrs. J. Douglas, Mrs. Josephine Burke Palmer and Mrs. George Swarbrick.

The interior of the church has been frescoed by the Jesuit artist, Brother Schroen. The arrangement of the figures, the choice of tints, the exquisite touches in the mosaics and windows, give a thrill of pleasure to the aesthetic sense.

The chimes of thirteen bells in the church tower, which pour out the sacred and patriotic airs to be heard for miles around, are the gift of Mrs. E. J. Bobet, who also presented the exquisitely carved pulpit recently erected in the chancel.

The Nicholas D. Burke Seismological Observatory is one of the attractive features of the Science Department. The graceful building, in keeping with the general style of architecture, is a pretty memorial to an old alumnus, erected by his family which has been a generous supporter of the University from its beginning. This building contains the vertical and horizontal seismographic instruments of the Wiechert astatic type, by which New Orleans receives its first news of earthquakes and disturbances on the surface of the globe. This observatory is one of many controlled by the Jesuit colleges and universities in all parts of the world, in the interest of seismological and meteorological science.

Bobet Hall.—The new $300,000 Science Building, which is being devoted to chemistry and allied subjects, has been completed and in use since September, 1924.

The latest scientific equipment has been installed. The general chemistry laboratory, 65 by 45 feet, accommodates 204 men, in two sections of 102 at one time. The biological and bacteriological laboratory, of the same dimensions, accommodates 234 students in three sections of 78 at one time.

The Pharmacy department occupies the whole top floor of the new building. Large laboratories and lecture halls are provided with the most modern equipment. Besides, Pharmacy students will have the use of equipment in the general chemistry and bacteriological laboratories on the third floor.

The Dental School has temporary but spacious and well equipped quarters in this building.

Law.—The Law department has purchased the Lemann property at the corner of Calhoun Street and St. Charles Avenue. It is hoped that soon the Law School will be built on this beautiful site.

New Stadium.—The new Athletic Stadium, the gift of Mr. B. S. D'Antoni, stands beyond the group of University Buildings, close to Freret Street. It has proved its value as an asset to college life during the athletic seasons of the last few years. The turtleback football field is covered with Bermuda grass and is pronounced by experts from all parts of the country as one of the finest fields in the United States.

Between the football stadium and Bobet Hall, a very fine baseball field has been laid out. A modern grandstand and attractive clubhouse equipped with lockers and showers make this sport attractive to both spectators and participants.

The Gymnasium Building affords a spacious court for basketball. It has special rooms for visiting teams, shower baths, and offices for the athletic department.

EQUIPMENT

The University has spent within the last few years nearly $125,000.00 in increasing its scientific equipment.

Physics.—The University is well supplied with all the instruments and materials for a thorough course in general college physics, and for advanced and special courses in mechanics, heat, electricity, magnetism, sound, and light. The students' laboratory is outfitted with apparatus of the finest quality and instruments of the highest precision, making it possible for the students themselves to perform all experiments with the accuracy and thoroughness demanded of university work in physics.

Besides the usual array of equipment necessary for demonstration and laboratory work in the regular course of college physics, there are very many additional instruments of the best design and the utmost accuracy, opening up fields in the study of physics not ordinarily embraced in college courses.

A partial list of apparatus includes: a standard meter, fine cathetometers, barometers of various types, pendulums of all kinds, apparatus for determining coefficients of elasticity and rigidity, Jolly balances, Atwood's machine, micrometer microscopes, standard thermometers, Boyle's law apparatus of standard and special forms, precision balances, mechanical rotary vacuum pumps and pressure pumps, land pumps, adiabatic calorimeter, electrically driven tuning forks, complete set of organ pipes, Helmholtz resonators, kymograph, oscillograph, standard cells and resistances, Wheatstone bridges of finest makes, potentiometer, standard condensers, Evans dynamo-electric equipment, motors and generators, static machines, X-ray equipment, radio equipment, optical disc, lenses of all kinds, microscopes, spectroscopes, wave-length meter, telescopes, polariscope, projection lanterns of best makes with all accessories, cable testing apparatus, current rectifiers and transformers, induction coils, etc.

There is a supply of alternating current, one phase and three phase, and a 7 h. p. motor-generator set for delivering direct wherever needed.

Chemistry.—The new Science Building with its many chemical laboratories and lecture rooms is the last word in modern scientific equipment for the teaching of chemistry in its many branches. It has all facilities for thorough and efficient teaching both by demonstration and by laboratory work; and its outfitting is the embodiment of the best features that could be found in the best chemical schools of the country. Compressed air is supplied throughout the building, and in some of the laboratories the individual desks are supplied with direct and alternating electric current. Direct and forced ventilation, efficient fume chambers, generous spacing of laboratory tables, commodious lockers, maximum daylight illumination; these are some of the things that make for pleasant and fruitful laboratory work under optimum conditions.

There are special research laboratories for advanced work. Besides the various materials and apparatus required for the ordinary courses in inorganic and organic chemistry, qualitative and quantitative analysis, physical and physiological chemistry, there are many special instruments of accuracy and precision.

Among the equipment in this building, there are polariscopes, colorimeters, Abbe refractometer, furnaces of all kinds, electric drying ovens, microscopes, spectroscopes, centrifuges, water stills, blast lamps, finest balances, platinum ware, etc.

Bacteriology.—The equipment of this laboratory has grown year by year, until now it has every convenience for experimental and research work, as well as for the regular courses. This department is in the Science Building, where new laboratory tables of special design are installed. The laboratory has capacity for 234 students in three sections of 78 at one time.

BEQUESTS AND GIFTS

The rapid growth of the University in all departments is making more evident each year the absolute need of more buildings for class rooms and laboratories.

By the greatest economy the Jesuit Fathers have saved for the University many thousands of dollars which would have been consumed in overhead expense and in salaries. Besides, the generosity of all the members of our various faculties have made it possible for the University to get the maximum of efficiency with the minimum of expense.

But such savings cannot supply the abundant means necessary for immediate expansion. The University, therefore, must look to its friends and benefactors, and to all those whose bounty is being devoted to the cause of higher education for the generous contributions and large donations which will enable the University to continue its building program and to put aside an endowment to safeguard the efficiency of the means of education and the teaching staff.

The University earnestly begs all those who believe in placing college education within the reach of every American boy or girl, and who consider that education the safest and best which postulates as the foundation of its intellectual development the formation of character through moral and religious education, that they come to the assistance of Loyola University by giving financial as well as moral support.

Among those who have by bequests aided the University in its great work, stand prominent Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Bobet, and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Vincent. The University is very grateful for this kind and needed remembrance and trusts that such splendid example will enkindle imitation.

Donations.—Donors are requested to make their donations, legacies, and bequests in the proper legal form to—which is the legal and corporate title.

One may specify the purpose or use to be made of the gift, and this intention will be scrupulously observed. It is well to state whether the sum is for Building and Equipment or for Endowment as the latter must be invested and only the accruing interest may be used.

SCHOLARSHIPS

Many bright and ambitious boys of approved moral character are debarred from the opportunity of entering college to prepare for a professional career, because they have not sufficient funds.

The University on the one hand is most anxious to assist each deserving boy in acquiring a higher education; but, on the other, it depends on the small income from tuition fees to keep up the departments. The University, therefore, must look to generous benefactors who, in their charity, wish to help native sons in this most valuable way by supplying funds necessary to care for a boy's tuition.

A Perpetual Scholarship is founded when an endowment of $2500.00 is set aside for this purpose.

A Course Scholarship represents an amount which will cover the tuition of one student during his four years of college. The sum of $500.00 may be deposited or $125.00 may be paid annually.

An Annual Scholarship is provided by the yearly donation of $125.00.

Scholarships cover the tuition fee only. The holder of the scholarship must pay the other fees at the beginning of the year, and he must at all times set an example of good conduct and serious application. The honor will be forfeited by any holder of a scholarship whose grades during a semester are unsatisfactory.

The President and Faculty wish to express their grateful appreciation of the generosity of those who have already founded scholarships, and to urge others to increase this charitable fund for the benefit of the deserving boy.

The following are scholarships which have been placed at the disposal of the University:

The W. P. Burke Scholarships (three).

The Rev. Francis X. Twellmeyer, S. J., Scholarship.

The Rev. A. E. Otis, S. J., Scholarship.

The Rev. A. Biever, S. J., Scholarship.

The Louisiana State Councils of K. C. Scholarships (seven).

The St. Ignatius Scholarship founded by Miss E. S. Fitch.

The St. Ignatius of Loyola Scholarship.

The Men's Sodality of Jesuits' Church Scholarship.

The Francis Xavier Wegmann Scholarship.

The Virginia Bobet Scholarship.
The Louise Thomas Scholarship.
The Albert J. B. Lapeyre Memorial Scholarship.
The Ladies' Marquette Auxiliary Scholarship.
The Mrs. Josephine Burke Palmer Scholarship.

STUDENT ORGANIZATIONS

Sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary.—The purpose of the Sodality is to develop Christian character under the protection of the Mother of Christ, and to train young hearts and minds to works of mercy and charity. No student can be admitted to the Sodality unless he has proven himself to be of exemplary moral character, full of the Christian spirit, and an earnest student.

The Student Council.—Officers of the various classes and departments, elected by the students, form a Council for the fostering of true college spirit and the promoting of student activities, whether athletic, social, scholastic or religious. Only such students are eligible to the position of class officers or members of the Student Council whose manly, moral character and standard of scholarship make them distinguished among their fellow students. The election to be valid must be ratified by the Faculty.

Debating Club.—Students of the College of Arts and Sciences must participate weekly in exercises of public speaking. To further this activity among the students and to develop special oratorical talent, the Loyola University Debating Club has been formed and conducts debates with colleges and universities in various sections of the country.

Thespian and Literary Society.—The purpose of the Thespians is to develop and give an outlet to the dramatic talent of the students. With this object in view, several plays are given during the year. Members are encouraged to write plays of varying length and scope. These, if they show sufficient merit, are produced by the Club at one or another of its appearances.

Glee Club.—Students of the College of Arts and Sciences are eligible for membership in the Loyola Glee Club. The Glee Club takes an active part in the public entertainments and assemblies of the University and has a schedule of concerts which it gives each year, both for public receptions and for radio programs over the Loyola Broadcasting Station, WWL.

University Band.—Membership in the University Band is open to the students of the College of Arts and Sciences if they have the required ability and training. All who become members are expected to be regular and prompt in attendance at the appointed rehearsals. Opportunities for public performances are offered during the course of the year.

Student Publications.—The students of the University, under faculty supervision, issue two publications, the Maroon, a bi-pointed directly by the President of the University, and he in turn appoints his editorial staff. The business management is in the hands of the students. Thus, their various duties in the editorial, reportorial, advertising and subscription departments render them familiar with phases of life outside of college that will be of benefit to them in their future careers.

STUDENT EXPENSES

All fees must be paid at the beginning of the school year. The tuition may be paid in two installments, but this must be done at the beginning of each semester.

At the time of registering, each student must obtain a card admitting him to the classes on his schedule. This card must be signed by the Bursar.

Unless all indebtedness is promptly paid, no card will be issued and the student will not be admitted to regular classes nor be allowed to take any examinations.

It is the duty of each student who applies for registration to come prepared to meet his financial obligations according to these rules. The University is unwilling to make exceptions for any student.

Students who live outside of New Orleans can obtain pleasant rooms in the neighborhood for from $10.00 to $15.00 per month. The University is equipped with a very fine modern cafeteria, where the students can take their meals at reasonable rates. The University does not conduct student dormitories.

All fees are payable September 23, except the Graduation fee, which must be paid on May 1 in the year of graduation.

In case a student withdraws from the University and makes application for refund during the first ten days of instruction as scheduled, the total amount of his fees for the work dropped, except the matriculation fee, will be refunded. If application is made after this ten-day period and before the middle of the semester, a rebate of one-half of the fees, except the matriculation fee, will be made. After the middle of the semester, no rebate will be allowed. In no case will any part of the matriculation fee be refunded.

The Athletic fee entitles the student to admission to all athletic events and to the privilege of participation in athletic activities on the campus.

*If the semester tuition fees are not paid within two weeks of the dates here specified, the regular rate of interest will be charged and the student will be ineligible for examinations.

The Student Activities fee covers subscriptions to the Maroon and The Wolf.

The Graduation fee includes rental of cap and gown.

Students are urged to provide their own microscopes. Should they choose to rent one from the University, they will pay an annual fee of $10.00 for the use of same.

Each student may have an individual locker for $2.00 a year.

A fee of $2.00 payable in advance will be charged for every examination taken out of course.

The Breakage fee will be administered and refunded according to the regulations of the college. Out of it is taken a charge for damage, loss or injury to materials, apparatus or property; and the distribution of this charge is made to individuals or classes, according to circumstances.

A student may request a transcript of credits earned at the University. No charge is made for the first transcript, but a fee of $1.00, payable in advance, will be charged for each succeeding copy.

ADMINISTRATION

The college year begins on September 23 and includes thirty-six weeks, divided into two semesters of eighteen weeks. There is a Christmas and Easter recess as indicated in the college calendar.

Attendance.—All students must attend assemblies, class room and laboratory exercises regularly. They will be charged with all absences except such as are incurred through University action. Students who are absent from exercises the day preceding or the day following any college recess or vacation will be marked with two absences for each exercise missed, unless permission has been previously asked for in writing and granted by the Regent.

A student will be dropped from a course when the number of his absences in the course in a semester equals three times the number of weekly periods of the course.

Cases of absences due to serious illness or other extraordinary causes must be referred to the Faculty Committee on Discipline.

Absence from a test that has been duly announced will be marked as two absences in that subject, unless a satisfactory excuse has been previously approved by the Regent.

Excused absences do not exempt from tests, quizzes, or written work required during the period of absence. The responsibility for making up work or taking omitted test rests wholly upon the student, and he should arrange with the professor for taking these tests, etc. Failure grade will be given where this is neglected.

If a student is tardy three times, or tardy once for more than fifteen minutes, he incurs an absence.

Discipline.—The educational system of this University includes, as one of its most important features, the formation of character. It is expected that each student will be so loyal to the spirit and ideals of his Alma Mater that the exercise of proper self-control will come from his own convictions and free determination. Rules and regulations of the college are meant as a guide and help to foster that gentlemanly conduct which is presupposed in every Loyola student. These rules require regular and punctual attendance at all scheduled exercises, obedience to college customs and regulations, serious application to study, and blameless conduct. A student who shows himself deficient in these essential points will be suspended or dismissed.

Examinations.—Quarterly examinations in all subjects are held. Written tests may be given at the discretion of the professors and quizzes are frequent. The result of the quarterly examinations, combined with the grade for the student's class work, will determine the final or passing grade for the semester. A student who has failed to take tests or quizzes or to hand in his assigned work will be given an incomplete grade.

The passing grade in the College of Arts and Sciences is 70. The student attaining this grade or above receives credit for the number of semester hours allowed for that portion of the course.

A grade between 55 and 70 is a Condition. This condition may be removed by examination. Only one such examination is allowed, and only on the day assigned by the Dean. If the student is successful in the examination, he receives the full credit of semester hours, but the highest average allowed for his permanent record for this subject is 70. If the student fails in the examination, the condition becomes a failure, and the course must be repeated.

Students absent from any examination, unless for the very gravest of reasons, approved by the Regent, will receive a failure grade in that course.

For each conditioned examination and for each examination taken out of course, a fee of $2.00 will be charged.

ADMISSION

The College of Arts and Sciences requires for admission the satisfactory completion of a four-year course in a secondary school approved by a recognized accrediting agency, or the equivalent of such a course. The major portion of the secondary school course presented by a student for admission should be definitely correlated with the curriculum to which he seeks admission. (See "Specific Entrance Requirements," page 34.)

All candidates for admission must offer fifteen units in acceptable subjects. No student will be admitted except on presentation of an official transcript of credits from the high school last attended. Credentials which are accepted for admission become the property of the University and are kept permanently on file. Blank forms for entrance certificates may be had on application to the Registrar. Certificates must be made out and signed by the principal or other recognized official of the school and mailed by him directly to the Registrar.

Applications for admission, accompanied by proper credentials, should be presented to the Registrar at least one month before the opening of the semester. The University reserves the right to refuse to admit any student whose preparatory work is of such grade as to create a doubt regarding his ability to pursue college work successfully.

Satisfactory testimonials of good moral character must be presented by all applicants for admission. Students wishing to transfer from another college or university must present a certificate of honorable dismissal.

METHODS OF ADMISSION

I. As a Regular Student

Admission as a regular student to the College of Arts and Sciences may be obtained by one of the following methods: (1) by certificate or diploma of graduation from an approved high school; (2) by examination; (3) by probation; (4) by transfer from another institution of higher learning.

1. Admission by Certificate.—Admission without examination on certificate is granted to students from secondary schools accredited by any recognized standardizing agency, or by the State Board of Education, or by the State University of the state in which the high school is located.

2. Admission by Examination.—An applicant who is not entitled to enter on certificate must take the entrance examinations in the following subjects: English, History, Language, Mathematics and Science. These examinations are held on September 16-17. Applications for these examinations should be made to the Registrar of the University at least two weeks in advance of the opening date. The fee for such examinations is $2.00 each.

3. Admission by Probation.—An applicant who has graduated from a four-year, non-accredited high school will be admitted without examination on probation for one semester on the special recommendation of the principal, provided the applicant, in his high school course, has fully completed the required units for admission to the University and has maintained an average of 10 per cent above the passing mark.

4. Admission to Advanced Standing.—Advanced Standing will be given, at the discretion of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, to an applicant who fulfils the high school requirements for admission and who presents a transcript from the proper official of another institution of accredited collegiate rank. Such credits are granted conditionally and will become final only after the student does satisfactory work in the Loyola College of Arts and Sciences.

Students applying for Advanced Standing should have a full transcript of their credits sent to the Registrar of the University in advance of their registration.

II. As a Special Student

Applicants over twenty years of age may register as special students for particular studies, without satisfying the general entrance requirements, provided their previous preparation fits them for the courses they wish to pursue. By virtue of their classification special students are not eligible for any degrees. They may ultimately become candidates for a degree, however, by completing the admission requirements of the college in which they are registered.

ENTRANCE PROCEDURE

Applicants for admission to the University should state the school or department they desire to enter and should have the principal of the high school last attended send their credentials to the Registrar of Loyola University. Application forms for admission by certificate may be had on application to the University. If a student has any doubt about his ability to meet the entrance requirements, it is recommended that he send his credentials immediately after graduation from high school, so that any deficiencies may be made up by summer work.

No student will be permitted to matriculate until the Committee on Undergraduate Studies has approved the units offered, and recommended the student for registration.

MATRICULATION AND REGISTRATION

New Students.—New students should observe the following procedure:

1. They should have their credentials on file in the Registrar's office before the day of registration.
2. When credentials have been approved, they should pay their matriculation fee to the Bursar.
3. On presentation of the matriculation receipt to the Registrar, they will receive a Matriculation Card, which they retain.
4. They should then fill out their Registration Card, which is left in the Registrar's office.
5. They will then receive a Schedule Card, which they should fill out after consultation with one of the Student Advisers.

6. They should present the Schedule Card, after approval, to the Bursar and receive from the latter a charge slip of tuition and other fees.
7. On payment of these fees to the Bursar, they will receive from him an Admit Card to the various courses on their approved schedule.
8. They should present the Admit Card to each of their professors, who will affix his signature to same and enter the student's name on the class roll.
9. They should return the Admit Card, properly signed by all their professors, to the Registrar within three days after the opening of classes.

Old Students.—Old students should follow the same steps as new students, with the exception of paying the matriculation fee.

No student will be considered duly registered unless his cards are signed by the proper officials, nor will he receive any credit for work for which he is not properly registered.

Changes in Registration.—After the first week, changes in registration will be permitted only for good reasons and with permission of the Dean. A charge of $1.00 is made for each change.

ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS

I. General Entrance Requirements.—Applicants for admission to the College of Arts and Sciences must have satisfied the general entrance requirements, namely, fifteen acceptable high school units. Of these, three must be in English, two in Mathematics and one in History. The other nine units must be chosen from the list of elective units on page 36.)

A unit represents a year's study in any subject in a secondary school, constituting approximately a quarter of a full year's work. This definition assumes that the length of a school year is thirty-six weeks, that a period is from forty to sixty minutes in length and that a subject is pursued for four or five periods a week. Laboratory periods must be twice the length of lecture periods.

II. Specific Entrance Requirements.—An applicant, besides meeting the general entrance requirements, must also satisfy the specific entrance requirements of the college or of the course for which he wishes to register. These latter will be found on the following pages. While no deficiencies are allowed in the general entrance requirements, an applicant with two course deficiencies in the specific entrance requirements may be admitted, on condition that he remove these course deficiencies before the beginning of the Sophomore year.

UNDERGRADUATE DEGREES

The College of Arts and Sciences confers the following Baccalaureate degrees:

Bachelor of Arts (A. B.) when the principal sequence is Latin and Philosophy. Not less than sixteen semester hours of Latin will be accepted for the A. B. degree.

Bachelor of Philosophy (Ph. B.) when the principal sequence is in the general cultural subjects of Philosophy, Literature and Education.

Bachelor of Science (B. S.) when the principal sequence is Science and Mathematics.

Bachelor of Science in Chemistry (B. S. in Chemistry) when the principal sequence is Chemistry in all its essentials, over a period of four years.

Bachelor of Science in Economics (B. S. in Economics) when the principal sequence is Economics, Accountancy and business subjects, over a period of four years.

Combined Courses.—A student who has completed, without conditions, the Junior year in the College of Arts and Sciences and has met the requirements of his Major and Minor studies for a Bachelor's degree, may enter upon his professional studies and receive his degree in Arts or Sciences after the completion of such work in the professional school as will be considered the equivalent of the credit necessary to obtain the desired degree. Not more than thirty-two semester hours of professional work may be counted toward a Bachelor's degree. No student who has not made a full year of residence in the College of Arts and Sciences will be considered a candidate for a Bachelor's degree. In all Combined Courses students should still be registered in the College of Arts and Sciences. The following courses may be combined for the Baccalaureate degrees:

Arts and Law.—A student who has satisfactorily completed three full years of work in the Bachelor of Arts Course or in the Bachelor of Philosophy Course (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) and has fulfilled the prescribed courses for a Baccalaureate degree and the requirements of Major and Minor sequence and of one year's residence in the College of Arts and Sciences, may elect courses in the School of Law to the amount of thirty-two semester hours and thus complete the work for the collegiate Bachelor's degree.

Sciences and Medicine.—A student who has satisfactorily completed the Junior year of the Bachelor of Science Course (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) and, besides the prescribed subjects of the pre-medical course, has majored in science, will be eligible for the Bachelor of Science degree on the satisfactory completion of one year in an approved Medical School. A statement of the successful completion of a full year's work, without a condition or failure, accompanied by an official transcript of the work and grades, is required. The student will be eligible for a Bachelor of Science degree under the usual conditions.

Sciences and Dentistry.—A student who has satisfactorily completed three years in the Bachelor of Science Course (96 semester hours and 96 credit points) may enter the School of Dentistry, and on the successful completion of the Senior year of Dentistry may receive the Bachelor of Science degree on fulfilment of the usual conditions.

REQUIREMENTS FOR GRADUATION

General.—The conditions for the Baccalaureate degrees are the following:

1. The satisfactory completion of the four years' course leading to the degree for which the student is a candidate.
2. A written thesis of approximately 3500 words approved by the Dean of the College and presented on or before April 1st of the year in which the degree is expected to be conferred.
3. In order to be accepted in fulfilment of any requirement for a degree, all work must be completed with at least grade "D" (70-76), and the general average of the work must be of grade "C" (77-84), or higher.
4. The payment of all indebtedness, including the graduation fee, in advance.
5. No student shall be considered a candidate for a degree if he has any deficiencies at the beginning of the second semester of his Senior year.

All applicants for a degree should file their applications on or before the fifteenth of April of their Senior year.

Amount of Work.—In order to receive a Baccalaureate degree, a student is required:

1. To complete 128 semester hours of work and to secure 128 credit points, that is, an average rating of "C" grade or better in all subjects.
2. A certain amount of prescribed work must be done. (See "Subject Requirements," page 41.)
3. In selecting the elective work, a Major and a Minor must be chosen and completed. (See below.)
4. Free electives, which afford opportunity either for broader culture or for greater specialization, as the student may choose, must be taken to the amount required to complete the 128 semester hours.

Major and Minor.—Every student at the beginning of his Junior year must arrange his elective work to center around some subject or department. This department is called his Major. Heads of the Departments of the College of Arts and Sciences with the Dean will assist the student in choosing his Major and Minor and in planning a concentrated course for his Junior and Senior years. Student should consult these Advisers at the time of registration, before the opening of classes, and they should report to them periodically of the progress being made.

For graduation a student must present at least twenty-four semester hours for his Major and eighteen semester hours in a related subject of the same group for his Minor.

Each student will elect his Major in one department of the following groups, and the Minor in another department of the same group closely related to his Major subject:

GROUP I

ENGLISH

ECONOMICS
PHILOSOPHY
SOCIOLOGY

GROUP III

CHEMISTRY
MATHEMATICS BIOLOGY

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Philosophy must choose their Major subject from Group I or Group II.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science must choose their Major subject from Group III.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Chemistry must choose their Major subject from Group III.

Candidates for the degree of Bachelor of Science in Economics must choose their Major subject from Group II.

* Elect one course in Science.

† All Catholic students are required to take Religion.

‡ Elect two courses in Science. For his degree, the student must, moreover, meet the Major and Minor requirements.

Quality of Work.—The grades of the student are regularly given in numbers on a percentage scale. When, however, for general grading purposes or as a report of a student's work, letters are used, these letters will have the following meaning:

Above Passing	Below Passing.
A 93-100 Excellent	E 55-69 Conditioned
B 85- 92 Good	F 0-54 Failed
C 77- 84 Fair	I.....Incomplete
D 70- 76 Passed	X.....Absent

A candidate for a degree must present not only the required quantity of work, but he must attain a certain standard of excellence in his work, especially in his Major field. For this reason the candidate for a Bachelor's degree must present, in addition to the 128 semester hours of credit, 128 credit points for quality of work, or an average mark in all subjects of C or better.

Credit points are earned in the following manner: For the grade of A in a given course, the student receives three times as many credit points as semester hours credit allowed for that course; for a grade of B, twice as many credit points as semester hours; for the grade of C, just as many credit points as semester hours. For the grade of D, semester hours are allowed, but no quality credit.

CLASSIFICATION OF STUDENTS

A Freshman must have twenty-five semester hours and twenty-five credit points before he may become a Sophomore; a Sophomore must have fifty-eight semester hours and fifty-eight credit points before he may become a Junior; a Junior must have eighty-eight semester hours and eighty-eight credit points before he may become a Senior.

COURSES PRELIMINARY TO PROFESSIONAL STUDIES

Pre-Law Course.—In accordance with the standards of the Association of American Law Schools and the American Bar Association, students entering upon Law must have completed "one-half of the work acceptable for a Bachelor's degree granted on the basis of a four-year period of study by the State University or the principal colleges or universities in the state where the Law School is located." (Handbook of the Association of American Law Schools, 1928. Article 6, ¶2).

The details of this entrance requirement as laid down by the professional school which a student plans on entering must determine his schedule of preliminary work.

The particular program approved by the Law Department of Loyola University is the following:

First Year

GRADUATE WORK

Master's Degree.—A candidate for the Master's degree must have a Bachelor's degree from a standard college and must devote one year exclusively to resident graduate work. Applicants who have received their Baccalaureate degree from some college or university other than Loyola University must present a full transcript of their undergraduate work.

If the candidate's whole time is not devoted to graduate study, two years, distributed over four part-time sessions, will ordinarily be required.

Twenty-four semester hours of resident work are required, made up of lectures and seminars, and a thesis in the Major subject.

This thesis must be typewritten, double spaced, on standard eleven-inch paper, and must contain about 5000 words.

The candidate must have a reading knowledge of one foreign language other than that studied as Major or Minor courses.

The candidate must be prepared to pass examinations, written or oral, or both, as may be required in the field of his Major and Minor subjects.

COURSES OF STUDY

DEPARTMENT OF ACCOUNTANCY

- 1-2. Accountancy; Constructive. 8 Sem. Hrs.
Fundamental principles in their actual business applications. Elements of single and double entry bookkeeping. Methods of recording and presenting facts. Opening and closing books. Laboratory problems.
Mr. Mitchell.
- 3-4. Accountancy; Advanced. 8 Sem. Hrs.
Advanced work. Private and public accountancy. Difference between bookkeeping and accountancy. Interpretation of facts in a scientific manner. Proprietorship, partnership, and corporation accounting. Profits and losses. Laboratory problems and exercises.
Mr. Mitchell.
- 5-6. Accountancy; Advanced. 6 Sem. Hrs.
Advanced business analyses. Classification of assets and liabilities. Bases of valuation. Special examinations and investigations. Special statements. Mergers and consolidations. Estate accounting. Practical accounting problems.
Mr. Mitchell.
- 7-8. Cost Accounting. 3 Sem. Hrs.
Prime cost factors. Departmentalization. Material, labor and factory burden. Determination of the cost of production for purpose of fixing sales prices. Allocation of costs.

Auditing and C. P. A. Review. 3 Sem. Hrs.
Principles of Auditing. Auditor's responsibility. Testifying before courts and regulating bodies. Special classroom preparation for the Certified Public Accountant's examination. Review of past questions. Application of principles to actual field problems.

Professor will be announced later.

DEPARTMENT OF BIOLOGY

- 1-2. Botany. 5 Sem. Hrs.

Plant life dealing with the general principles of the Cryptogams and Phanerogams; their gross and microscopic structure, functions and modifications. Ecological characteristics are carefully treated.

- Zoology. 5 Sem. Hrs.

Animal Life. This course is planned with a view to give the student a fundamental knowledge of the structure, functions and relationships of animal organisms. Studies are made of a graded series of invertebrate and vertebrate types, culminating in detailed study of the Mammalian type, stress being laid on their comparative anatomy and physiology. An intensive study of the cell is made in regard to its structure, division, germinal cell, maturation, fertilization and cleavage.

Mr. Merilh.

DEPARTMENT OF CHEMISTRY

- 1-2. General Inorganic. 10 Sem. Hrs.

Fundamental principles of chemistry; the laws of chemical action, and a description of the metallic and non-metallic elements and their compounds.

A detailed study of the metallic elements and their salt formations, solution, ionization, precipitation and qualitative analysis.

Mr. Markey.

- 3-4. Elementary Organic. 5 Sem. Hrs.

Discussion of important compounds of aliphatic and aromatic series and preparation of typical compounds.

- Qualitative Analysis. 5 Sem. Hrs.

Detection of the common cations and anions, based on the application of the chemical principles of equilibrium, ionization, solubility product, hydrolysis, complex ions, oxidation and reduction.

Fr. Francis.

- 5-6. Inorganic Quantitative Analysis. 8 Sem. Hrs.

Gravimetric and volumetric methods.

Mr. Voorhies.

- 7-8. Physical Chemistry. 4 Sem. Hrs.
A general survey of the subject. Treatment of the laws of chemical phenomena—the gaseous, liquid and solid state of matter.
The course treats of Thermo Chemistry, laws governing chemical changes and Electro Chemistry.
Mr. Voorhies.
- 9-10. Industrial Chemistry. 4 Sem. Hrs.
The chemical engineering profession—its field and opportunities. The modern factory, etc.
Electrolytic deposition of copper, zinc, nickel, tin, silver, gold and other metals.
Mr. Voorhies.
- 11-12. Technical Methods of Analysis. 8 Sem. Hrs.
The laboratory work includes analysis of sugar, steel, industrial products and food. Students who qualify may substitute more advanced work for any of these exercises.
Mr. Voorhies.
- 13-14. Advanced Organic Chemistry. Adv. Lab. 10 Sem. Hrs.
A study of the methods for detecting the different groups in organic compounds and the identification of unknowns.
Organic synthesis and training in organic laboratory technique.
Fr. Francis.
- 15-16. Elementary Biological Chemistry. 10 Sem. Hrs.
A study of the chemical constituents of the body. The chemistry and functions of the carbohydrates, fats, proteins, vitamins and mineral elements of foods.
Fr. Francis.

DEPARTMENT OF CLASSICAL LANGUAGES

Section I.—Greek

- 1-2 Demosthenes, Homer, Euripides. 8 Sem. Hrs.
Demosthenes, Olynthiacs, I, II, III. Homer, Selections from the Iliad. Euripides, Hecuba.

Fr. O'Brien.

13-14. Special Topics in Medieval European History.

6 Sem. Hrs.

These topics deal with events, movements, and institutions of the Middle Ages and are, consequently, a topical study of Medieval History. Special stress is laid upon all events, movements and institutions which had a direct bearing upon the Church, as, v. g., the origin and development of the Papacy, the influence and temporal power of the Popes, the Holy Roman Empire, the controversies with regard to investitures, medieval religious life, the Mendicant Friars and their work, medieval universities, the medieval concept of representative government, the Babylonian Captivity of the Papacy, the Great Schism, the Protestant Revolt of the Sixteenth Century, the Catholic Reaction or Counter-Reformation, missionary enterprise in Asia and America, etc. The Middle Ages—its movements, ideals and institutions,—being intimately bound up with the Church, no proper appreciation of these times can be had without a study of the Church which motivated them.

Fr. W. Burk.

*All these courses are not offered each year but are rotated in a two-year cycle.

DEPARTMENT OF MATHEMATICS

1-2. College Algebra.

4 Sem. Hrs.

Progressions, Binomial Theorem, Logarithms, Interest, Choice, Chance, Series, Variables, Determinants, etc.

Fr. Westland.

3-4. Plane Trigonometry.

3 Sem. Hrs.

Functions, Goniometry, Computation of Triangle, Solution of Trigonometrical Equations, DeMoivre's Theorem.

Fr. Westland.

Plane Analytic Geometry.

3 Sem. Hrs.

Different Systems of Coordinates, Point, Straight line, Conics, Higher Plane Curves.

Mr. Voorhies.

- * 5-6. Spherical Trigonometry and Solid Analytic Geometry. 4 Sem. Hrs

Napier's Rule, Gauss's formula, L'Huilier's formula, the Astronomical Triangle, application to nautical and astronomical problems. Loci in space, surfaces of revolution, ruled surfaces.

- 7-8. Differential Calculus. 3 Sem. Hrs.

Review of Algebraic notions used in Calculus, definitions of limits, derivatives, differentials, differentiation of algebraic and transcendental functions, successive derivatives, problems in maxima and minima, curvature, envelopes, evolutes, partial differentiation, Taylor's and McLaurin's Series, application to surfaces and twisted curves.

- Integral Calculus. 3 Sem. Hrs.

Integration of algebraic and transcendental functions, geometrical, physical and chemical applications, mechanical integration, integration of infinite series, successive integration, centre of mass, moment of inertia.—Successive and partial integration. Mr. Adams.

- * 9-10. Differential Equations. 3 Sem. Hrs.

Solution of homogeneous equations, singular solutions, solutions of equations of second order and second degree, partial differential equation, solution of equations of higher degree and order.

- Theory of Equations. 3 Sem. Hrs.

Descartes's rules, Sturb's theorem, Lagrange's and Newton's methods of solution of equations, solution of equations by radicals, Cardan's formula, Vandermonde's principle, graphical solution of equations, introduction to theory of groups.

- * 11-12. Theory of Probability and Statistics. 3 Sem. Hrs.

Determination of the measurement of probability, calculation of probability, the law of error, physical and geometrical applications, extension to several dimensions, laws of frequency, history of statistics, the statistical method based on Calculus, simple and complex tables. Averages, principle of increased uniformity of statistics.

*Will be offered if registration is sufficient.

DEPARTMENT OF MODERN LANGUAGES*Section I. French

- 1-2. Elementary French. 6 Sem. Hrs.

Grammar review: Careful drill in pronunciation. The rudiments of grammar including the inflection of the regular and more irregular words. Writing from dictation. Syntax of cases, moods and tenses. Order of words in the sentence.

Fr. de Monsabert.

- 7-8. Literature of the Romantic Period. 6 Sem. Hrs.

A study of the lyric poetry and of the prose of this period.

Fr. de Monsabert.

Section II. Spanish

- 1-2. Elementary Spanish. 6 Sem. Hrs.

Selection from Spanish authors and weekly themes based on these selections. Practice in simple conversation.

Home reading: Cuentos Hispano-Americanos; Alarcon's El Capitan Veneno.

Text: Garner's Essentials of Spanish Grammar.

Fr. Snubelen.

- 3-4. Intermediate Spanish. 6 Sem. Hrs.
 Zaragueta and Quintano's Balboa.
 Home Reading: Valera's El Pajaro Verde and Calderon's La Vida es Sueno. Practice in advanced composition and fluent conversation.
 Text: Garner's Essentials of Spanish Grammar.
 Miss Montejo.
- 5-6. Advanced Spanish. 6 Sem. Hrs.
 An advanced course devoted to commercial correspondence and the study of classical Spanish literature. Practice in Spanish commercial correspondence and discussions conducted in Spanish.
 Miss Montejo.
- 7-8. Spanish Drama of the Golden Age. 6 Sem. Hrs.
 Brief review of the history of the Spanish drama, with special reference to the works of the founders: Lope de Rueda, Lope de Vega, Calderon de la Barca.
 Miss Montejo.

DEPARTMENT OF PHILOSOPHY

- 1-2. Logic. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 Classification and use of ideas and terms. Judgments and propositions. The laws of the syllogism. Inductive and deductive reasoning.
 Epistemology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 This course will embrace a study of the possibility, nature, sources and criteria of certitude. Special attention will be given to the teaching of different schools of philosophy on these subjects, particularly those of Bacon, Hobbes, Locke, Berkeley, Descartes, Kant, Fichte, Schelling, Hegel and Comte.
 Fr. Cavey.
- 3-4. Ontology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 The notion and transcendental properties of Being. Substance and accidents. Analysis of causes. The causation of the order of nature.
 Cosmology. 2 Sem. Hrs.
 The mechanical and scholastic theories of the universe; the scientific and philosophical aspects of a mechanical theory are specially emphasized. Dynamic Atomism.
 Fr. Cavey.

5-6. Psychology. 2 Sem. Hrs.

Scientific idea of life. Morphology and physiology of the cell. The human organism and its functions. Philosophic definition of life. Anatomical and physiological aspect of sensation and movement. Psychological aspect of movement. Origin of life. Theory of Evolution. Rational life. Acts and faculties peculiar to man. The intellect and will. Comparative psychology of animal and man. Origin of man. Immortality of the soul.

Theodicy. 2 Sem. Hrs.

This course treats of the idea of God, the proofs for the existence of God, the attributes of God, the divine action in the universe, providence.

Rights and duties. Rights of the individual, the family and the state. Origin of the state and of civil authority. The rights and limitations of civil authority.

Fr. M. Burke.

DEPARTMENT OF PHYSICS

1-2. General Physics. 10 Sem. Hrs.

Mechanics, sound, light, heat and magnetism. Lectures 3 hours, Laboratory 4 hours per week, both semesters.

Fr. Westland.

3-4. Advanced Physics. 8 Sem. Hrs.

A more mathematical treatment of mechanics, molecular physics, light and heat. Lectures 3 hours per week, both semesters. Advanced Laboratory course 4 hours per week, both semesters.

Fr. Abell.

5-6. Electricity and Magnetism. 8 Sem. Hrs.

Electricity, magnetism, radioactivity, the electron theory. Lectures, 3 hours per week, both semesters.

Advanced laboratory work in electricity and magnetism, 4 hours per week, both semesters.

Fr. Abell.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC SPEAKING

- 1-2. Principles of Vocal Expression. 1 Sem. Hr.

Practical training in the fundamentals of effective speaking. Methods of breathing, articulation, pronunciation, inflection; qualities of voice; purity and flexibility of tone. Gesture and Technique of Action. 1 Sem. Hr.

Poise, posture, movement, gesture; interpretation of emotions; expression, ease, grace, and effectiveness of delivery. Fr. de Monsabert.

- 3-4. Argumentation and Debate. 2 Sem. Hrs.

Practical training in collecting materials, outlining briefs, arranging arguments, preparing speeches and rebuttal. Manner of conducting debate; parliamentary procedure.

Fr. O'Connor.

DEPARTMENT OF RELIGION

COURSES FOR PART-TIME STUDENTS

General Statement.—For the convenience of teachers and of others who have satisfied the requirements of college entrance, the University offers special courses in college subjects leading to the Baccalaureate degrees.

Students who have not satisfied the requirements for college entrance may enroll in these courses for the cultural value to be gained thereby, but credit will not be granted until the proper entrance credentials have been approved and placed on file.

This part-time work is offered in a Summer School, in a Saturday Course and in a Night Course.

Summer School.—Besides the ordinary college subjects, the Summer School offers special courses for teachers, consisting of Educational Psychology, Educational Measurements, Principles of Teaching, Special Methods, School Management, Observation and Practice Teaching, etc. The maximum number of semester hours obtainable in the Summer School is eight. Students' schedules must be approved either by the Director of the Summer School or by the Board of Advisers.

The Louisiana State Department of Education and the New Orleans School Board give credit to teachers for summer work done at Loyola University.

The Summer School begins on June 17, 1929, and continues for thirty-two days, exclusive of holidays. The registration for the Summer School will take place on June 13, 14 and 15, 1929.

Saturday Course.—On Saturdays, from nine to twelve, college courses are offered during a year of thirty-four weeks. Two semester hours, or one year hour, can be gained in each subject, and three subjects may be chosen.

The Saturday classes begin on October 5, 1929, and close on May 24, 1930. The registration for the Saturday classes will take place from 9 to 11 a. m., and from 2 to 5 p. m., September 28, 1929.

Night Course.—From seven to nine every night, except Saturdays and Sundays, the University offers special courses in college subjects during a session of thirty-four weeks. Two hours each week are given in each subject (except Philosophy) for two semesters, making a total of four semester hours, or two year hours of credit for each subject. Philosophy is given four times per week for two semesters, making a total credit of eight semester hours, or four year hours, for the year. A student must limit the number of subjects taken by the leisure he has for home study. The schedule elected should be approved by the Dean. For further information on the above courses, see the special bulletins.

Credit.—As the subjects offered and the home work required are the same as in the regular College of Arts and Sciences, semester hours of credit are allowed according to the number of subjects successfully carried through a session.

The maximum number of semester hours that may be obtained in the Part-Time Courses is: In the Summer School, eight; in the Saturday Course, six; in the Night Course, twenty.

No credit will be given for any work which is a duplication of work already credited.

Attendance.—Regular attendance is required in every course. A student will be dropped from a course when the number of the absences in a course in a semester equals three times the number of weekly periods of the course. Cases of absences due to serious illness or other extraordinary causes must be referred to the Faculty Committee on Discipline.

Absence from a test that has been duly announced will be marked as two absences in that subject, unless a satisfactory excuse has been previously approved by the Regent.

Excused absences do not exempt from tests, quizzes, or written work required during the period of absence. The responsibility for making up work or taking omitted tests rests wholly upon the student, and he should arrange with the professor for taking these tests, etc. Failure grade will be given where this is neglected.

If a student is tardy three times, or tardy once for more than fifteen minutes, he incurs an absence.

Residence.—No student will be approved for a degree who has not spent one year (Senior year) in residence. Residence is measured by actual hours of attendance at classes conducted by the professors of Loyola University in the College of Arts and Sciences.

Registration.—A part-time student must register in the same manner as a regular student. The same entrance units are required, and the official credentials must have been approved and be on file in the Registrar's office.

Advanced Standing.—Advanced Standing will be given, at the discretion of the Committee on Undergraduate Studies, to an applicant who fulfils the high school requirements for admission and who presents a transcript from a proper official of another institution of accredited collegiate rank. Such credits are granted conditionally and will become final only after the student does satisfactory work at Loyola.

Students applying for Advanced Standing should have a full transcript of their credits sent to the Registrar of the University in advance of their registration.

Fees.—All students registered in the college must pay the usual yearly registration fee of $5.00.

The tuition fee for the Summer Session is $15.00, regardless of the number of courses elected. The tuition fee for the Saturday Courses is $20.00. The tuition for the Night Courses is as follows: For the first course of two hours per week, $20.00; for each additional course of two hours per week, $10.00 extra, up to $50.00, which is the maximum fee.

In case a student withdraws from a course or from the University and makes application for refund during the first ten days of instruction as scheduled, the total amount of his fees for the work dropped, except the matriculation fee, will be refunded. If application is made after this ten-day period and before the middle of the semester, a rebate of one-half the fees, except the matriculation fee, will be made. After the middle of the semester, no rebate will be allowed. In no case will any part of the matriculation fee be refunded. No refund will be made unless application is made by the student to the proper authorities at the time of withdrawal.

COLLEGE OF ARTS AND SCIENCES

AT GRAND COTEAU, LA.

Character of the College.—Saint Charles College, situated at Grand Coteau, Louisiana, in the southwestern part of the State, is a part of the College of Arts and Sciences of Loyola University. It is the training school for the members of the New Orleans Province (Southern States) of the Society of Jesus. The collegiate studies pursued here form the first part of the educational training in the formation of a Jesuit. These four years of study are followed by three years in the School of Philosophy and Science, by a period of teaching of from three to five years, then by four years of Theology in the School of Divinity and finally by one year devoted to ascetical study.

On admission to the Order, the prospective Jesuit spends his first two years in the "novitiate," a period of time during which his occupation is largely ascetical, and, therefore, non-academic in character. In order to keep up his intellectual interests, however, about three hours each day are devoted to study, one to Latin, another to Greek, and a third to English, and vacations as well as other periods of leisure are utilized for the acquisition of modern foreign languages.

During the second period of two years, however, the student's interest is concentrated on humanistic studies. By far the larger number of the members of the Jesuit Order spend their entire lives in teaching or in school administration. Moreover, the "Scholastics," as members of the Order are called while they are still in training, are required to spend from three to five years in teaching, between the period of their philosophical and that of their theological studies which lead to the priesthood. The teacher's training required for such a life of class room activity is begun in the College of Arts and Sciences at Grand Coteau.

In accordance with these purposes of the school, its enrollment is limited to the members of the Order.

Requirements for Admission.—The minimum entrance requirement to the College is the completion of a standard high school course requiring four years of Latin. A large number of students, however, have completed at least two years of college study. Due to the differences in previous preparation, private study under the most careful individual guidance as well as a modified tutorial method afford the student the fullest opportunity for self-development.

Advanced Standing.—Students who have already secured their degree or who have completed a portion of their college work may complete the studies required in a shorter time than the prescribed period. Under exceptional circumstances, the student may be required to take only courses in Education, so that he may comply with the prerequisites for teaching as demanded by law in the various States and by the prescription of the standardizing agencies.

Organization and Courses.—The College is administered by an Associate-Dean.

The courses offered in the College of Arts and Sciences at Grand Coteau are the same as those taught in the College of Arts and Sciences at the University.

Since the primary purpose of the school is the education of teachers, stress is laid upon pedagogical studies. The various systems of education in their historical development as well as in their practical effects are reviewed, but emphasis is placed largely upon the "Ratio Studiorum"—the method of teaching which is traditional in the Jesuit Order. Practice classes are held bi-weekly, and the performances of the temporary teachers are subjected to criticism by both faculty members and the class.

A secondary purpose of the school, however, is to deepen the student's appreciation and love for the classical languages, and every effort is made to develop scholarly interest in these subjects on the part of those who show special aptitude.

Examinations.—Examinations are held at the end of each semester. They are both oral and written, and a rigorous test is exacted in each of the subjects of study. If it should be found that a student is unable to complete the courses in a satisfactory manner within the prescribed time, he is required to add one or more years to his course before being allowed to proceed.
